CHILD HEALTH DAY
ONE CUBIC INCH ONE TON
GOOD FIGHT, AHEAD
THE LADY'S HUSBAND

—By Arthur Brisbane—(Copyright 1930 By King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

PRESIDENT HOOVER, designated May 1 as "Child Health day," urges parents and all others to co-operate.
These are some ingredients of child health.
Fresh air and sunlight—they cost nothing.
Regular hours, long and regular sleep. They cost nothing.
Eating slowly, which costs nothing,
and develops teeth and jaws,
avoiding adenoid and other troubles.
Good simple food, with variety,
from day to day. That costs trouble principally.

WHILE DESIGNATING A child health day, the government might think of the mother's health also,
and the disgraceful fact that this nation leads all others, civilized, in the number of mothers that die in childbirth, for lack of competent attention.

If a sow is about to have a litter,
or a cow a calf, the government stands ready to advise and help through the agricultural department.
For the expectant human mother,
there is no such help.

Uranium, heaviest of all metals is now produced for $40 a pound. Some of it was shown to chemists at Atlanta. The present price is low, recently the stuff was priceless.

It weighs twice as much as lead, but comically considered, that is not heavy. Learn from science that the substance of certain stars, because of terrific gravity and compression, weighs 2,000 pounds to the cubic inch. Imagine the outer joint of your thumb weighing a ton.

THE SUN'S RADIATION, heat and power are supposed to come from the "stripping of atoms."
The electrons, revolving around the nuclei are stripped off and shot into space. The nuclei, left alone, are packed one against another, with no space separating them from their electrons and from each other.
It is as though you stripped away
the planets from suns in space and
packed one against another, with
no space separating them from
their electrons and from each other.
It is as though you stripped away
the planets from suns in space and packed the suns solidly together in a lump. That would be heavy.

AN ELECTRON, IN PROPOR-TION to its size, is as far from its central nucleus as the sun is from the earth.
Each atom is a little solar system,
so small you do not notice a million of those systems in the corner

Weight Limits On Trucks are Lifted

The time limit for the operation of motor trucks hauling in excess of 7½ tons has expired, and signs on all state and county highways cautioning operators about the weight limit are now being removed.

The campaign against overweighted trucks in Columbiana county resulted in about 10 drivers being taken into court by Sheriff W. J.
Barlow and about $300 in fines were assessed by Probate Judge Lodge Riddle.

Junk Purchases Cause of Arrest

LISBON, April 11.—Charged with buying junk from minors, Frances Martinez of Leetonia, entered a plea of guilty when taken before Probate
Judge Lodge Riddle and was fined $30 and costs.

This case was to have gone before the last grand jury, but under a new provision of law, a charge against the defendant was filed in Probate court by Prosecuting Attorney John E. Bauknecht.

THE TIME IS GROWING NEAR.

JAPANESE MART HALTS TRADING

Wild Selling Rush Brings Order Permanently After Brief
Suspension Today

TOKYO, April 11.—Japan's economic difficulties reached a critical stage today with the suspension of trading on the Tokyo stock exchange.

The bear ridden market opened well below yesterday's closing and the resulting confusion caused the directors to announce a one-hour suspension, which later was extended at 1 p. m. in the exchange attempting to open again but when a selling stampede was threatened it closed for the day.

Despite the near panic here the Osaka exchange continued orderly trading throughout the day, the leading stocks dropping slightly.

The economic crisis is the result of a long period of decline in trade and industry which recently was accentuated owing to several adverse elements in the export market.

Jury Recalled

PAY TRIBUTE TO BUILDING DONOR

Plans for Future Sports
In City Outlined To Those Present

Reminiscences of old-time days in sports and formation of plans for future athletic events; boxing bouts and a speech by J. Honus "Hans" Wagner, one of baseball's greatest players and best known characters greeted a representative gathering of this city's players and fans in the first annual banquet held at the Memorial building auditorium here
Thursday night.

It was an occasion which served to attract more than 125 of Salem's sport-minded as they gathered together for a resume of past events in athletics and the making of plans for coming activities. Mayor John M. Davidson, industrial executives, bank officials, school coaches and officials, basketball, baseball and football players and fans, all attended and assisted in making the affair one of the outstanding meetings of its type held in the city's history.

Hans Wagner was the principal speaker of the occasion, bringing happenings of the diamond during bygone days to his audience in a humorous manner that was characteristic of the "Flying Dutchman," who, 10, 15 and 20 years ago, was one of the national game's outstanding gale attractions. He remarked on the great changes effected in baseball since his exit as a headliner and pleaded for continuation of Salem athletic leagues as have been operated for the past year.

J. S. Alan speaks
Tribute was paid to Wagner's ability as a baseball player by John S. Alan, superintendent of Salem schools, in a short talk. Alan told of games which he had seen the former Pirate star play and also of his experience with other major league players with whom he came in contact.

The superintendent led the gathering in offering a vote of thanks to W. H. Mullins for the latter's work in making possible the Memorial building and for his continued contributions to the successes of other Salem ventures.

Joe M. Kelley, director of the central athletic activities, was also given a hand for his affiliation with organization of community athletic leagues.

Plans for future athletic seasons were placed before the fans and players by Homer Bow, master of ceremonies, who also presented speakers and awards to various past city league winning titles in the past city league cage competition.
Bow announced that a Salem Athletic club will be a feature.

A contralto solo will be sung by Mrs. Cesena and a piano solo by Mrs. Hundertmark. J. L. Hundert-mark will play a violin solo.

Bennie Oosterbaan, former Uni-victory for an inferior team over a team presumed stronger in ability.

Oosterbaan stated. He told of interesting incidents in his athletic career and urged student all to participate in some form of athletic competition.

He was introduced by W. J.
Springer, school principal.

JUNIORS PLEASE LARGE AUDIENCE AT CLASS PLAY

"Nothing But the Truth"
Will Be Presented
Again Tonight

With a stellar cast, the three-act comedy, "Nothing But the Truth" was presented by the junior class of Salem high school Thursday evening at the auditorium to a large audience.

This is the annual class play and will be repeated tonight.

The play was presented under the direction of Miss Hilda Rose Stahl, high school dramatic coach.

All students took their parts exceptionally well.

An afternoon scene in an uptown
New York broker's office opens the play with Henry Reese as Clarence Van Dusen, Victor Orashan as E. M. Ralston, Joseph Hertz as Dick Donnelly and Lewis Benedict as Robert Bennett all interested in the sale of stocks.

Bennett is the lover of Gwendolyn Ralston, played by Leila Beck, who is also a daughter of his employer.
Gwen is treasurer of a church committee, which is trying to raise funds for a children's home. Her father promises to double the amount if a certain sum is raised, and she gives the money over to her sweetheart to invest. Through a wager with Van Dusen Ralston and Donnelly, to tell nothing but the truth for 24 hours, Bennett finds a plan to double the amount of church money.

The second and third acts are scenes in the summer home of E.
M. Ralston at Long Island, where Bennett spends the day. Here circumstances in which Bennett is involved and in which he tells "nothing but the truth" kept the audience in almost continuous laughter.

Charles Snyder, as Bishop Doran, who is working with Gwen to get money to build the "home" is one of Van Dusen's victims in a stock swindle. However, after the bishop "yells" so long about his loss, his money is returned with interest.

Susan Lutch takes the role of Mrs.
Dorothy Harroff, as Ethel Clark, wealthy friend of Gwen; Margaret Steele and Betty Coles, as Sabel and Mabel Jackson, and Garnet Lodge, the maid.

PIQUA, O., April 11.—Seven bank robbers, armed with machine guns and repeating rifles, killed one man, and wounded two others in a running gun battle through city streets

GENERATIONS TO COME

The name of those who have figured scenes of natural grandeur, rendered beautiful vistas unslightly, demolished architectural gems or destroyed masterpieces of art, is legion. Very few have been those who have searched out the beautiful, whether the handiwork of God or man, and given of their time, and their effort, and their means to its preservation.

We thought of this when reading of the purchase of 35,000 acres of privately-owned land in the Jackson Hole country of Wyoming by the Snake River Land Co., acting for John D. Rockefeller, Jr., who for several years has been working to make the tract purchased a part of the governments Rocky Mountain National park, which boasts the majestic range of mountains whose lofty peaks rise something like a score of miles to the south of Yellowstone park. It is one of the wildest bits of country in the United States and in its rugged beauty one of the most picturesque. It is today classed as the last spot within our boundaries where the wild life flourishes as it did before the white man invaded the West. That it has retained its beauty little spoiled by the hand of man is largely due to its rugged wildness and the difficulty of its approach.

It is the plan of Mr. Rockefeller to effect every possible trace of the presence of the white man from the tract and then turn it over to the government for an addition to its park system, that the wild life of the Jackson Hole country may have just such a sanctuary as the government gives it in present parks and that the beauty of the tract may be preserved to future generations.

Sometimes we are inclined to feel that the present generation does not appreciate to anything like the full the wonderful work Mr. Rockefeller and his father have been and are doing for this and future generations. To expend money is easy. To expend it wisely, is not always easy. When the accumulation is great, its wise expenditure is difficult. It is to be questioned if, in all history, there has been expenditure of great wealth which displayed wisdom the duplicate of that of the younger Rockefeller whose thought has embraced not only the present generation and that immediately to follow it, but also the generations for ages to come.

THE SUBMARINE

The five powers represented in the London naval conference—the United States, Great Britain, Japan, France and Italy—are reported to have reached an agreement which will be memorialized in the form of a declaration rather than in treaty form, looking to the humanization of the submarine in time of war. Broadly speaking, the agreement provides the submarines must conform to the rules of international law in their course of action toward merchant vessels, and that no warship, either surface or undersea, shall sink a merchant vessel, save in case of the persistent refusal of such vessel to heave to or actively resist boarding for the purpose of search, without first seeing that such vessels passengers, crew and papers are placed in a position of safety, it being understood that placing them in open boats when the condition of the sea permits and land or some vessel capable of taking them aboard is near comes within the "safety" requirement.

This is a long way from the agreement evoked by Elihu Root at the time of the Washington conference, which provided that the passengers and crew of a vessel must be taken aboard any warship about to sink a merchant vessel before such a vessel could be legally sunk and completely outlawed the submarine as a commerce destroyer, making the officers and crews of submarines sinking merchant vessels pirates who could be punished by any power within the jurisdiction of which they might be apprehended.

The opposition to the Root treaty in the present conference came from France, which insisted that the plan of setting the passengers and crews of merchant vessels adrift in open boats be legalized and utterly refused to agree to any provisions by which the officers and crews of submarines might be tried for piracy in an enemy country.

While the agreement reached is not what was hoped for, it is another case of a half loaf being better than none at all. It will not wholly safeguard passengers and crews of merchant vessels—there will still be danger to them from submarine attack—but it will stop, so far as the five original signatory powers an dall other powers which may subsequently approve it are concerned, such horrors as occurred time and again during the World War. This accomplishment alone will stand as justification for the conference if its efforts have no other result.

What Others Say

GREEN'S RADIO REBELLION

The Federal Radio commission has caught a tartar in Gov. Fred W. Green, of Michigan, who asserts that state rights include ethical rights and that Michigan will establish a state police broadcasting station without license from the commission. "Let them try to arrest us," says the battling governor. "If they come we will throw them out." It will probably not be necessary to call out the troops, but Michigan seems to be taking its radio rebellion seriously.

A "pirate" station of Chicago brought about air chaos by proving that federal limitation of broadcasting had no legal sanction. To meet that emergency, congress passed the present radio law, placing all stations under control of the Federal Radio commission. Gov. Green appears to challenge the radio act in toto, for if stations can be built and operated by state authority without federal license the attempt at federal regulation is knocked into a cocked hat.

The radio law is derived from the power of congress to regulate commerce. If the act is constitutional, any state authorization repugnant to it, as is plainly the case in Michigan's defiance, is void. Federal courts have held that radio communications are interstate. "Radio waves know no frontiers." It looks as if the Michigan station can not broadcast without let or hindrance unless it first hurdles the constitution of the United States. Gov. Green may be reminded that patience is a good thing. There is no reason to suppose that the Federal Radio commission would refuse to license the police broadcasting station in the cause of "public interest, convenience or necessity," with all deference to the welfare of the sovereign state of Michigan.—New York Herald Tribune.

The Stars Say—

For Saturday, April 12.

The planetary configurations operating on this day point to some sudden changes, with disappointments and delays, albeit attended by some very optimistic financial surges. With your perseverance and sound judgment the situation may be turned to excellent advantage with favorable promise of reaching some high ambition, especially as relate to money or investment. But precaution, patience and stability in old rather than new ventures must be exercised.

Those whose birthday it is may have a year in which some of the ambitions may be fulfilled despite tenacious obstacles, hazardous changes and devastating occurrences. With persistency, sound judgment and firm control of circumstances all may be turned to good account, but rather in old lines than in new ventures.

A child born on this day may be ambitious and clever, in spite of a tendency to restlessness, changeability and moments of dejection and melancholia. It has a fair chance for success if it be trained in perseverance, courage and stability.

HEALTH

By Dr. Royal S. Copeland

FOOD FOR YEAR-OLD BABY

Nothing is more important in the life of the growing child than the right food, food that is properly prepared. Let us consider the young child of about one year of age. Now is the time to lay the foundation of health for its later years.

After the tenth month, when weaning is the usual thing, a child must have the purest and best of milk at least a quart a day. But besides this, it will need proper amounts of bone and muscle building food of other sorts. And not only the right food is necessary, but it must be properly prepared.

Next to the milk, the first good food to think of for the growing child is cereal. Any whole grain cereal is good, but it must be cooked thoroughly. The month and stomach of a little one-year-old child are tender and delicate. On this account, it is wise to strain a cereal that is at all coarse. Cereals should be steamed in a double boiler for two or three hours to be suitable for a young child. Short time cooking is not enough.

Variety in foods is a good thing. Monotony of food is really harmful. Children get tired of the same cereals. Have a different cereal every day or two, served with whole milk, this affords the best kind of bone and muscle building material and the essential minerals.

A child may have for one feeding whole wheat crackers, zwieback, rusks or dry bread with milk. Broths and cream soups are excellent. Cup eustard is good. A cup of chicken, lamb or beef broth with rice or tapioca makes an agreeable change in the diet. Mashed carrots, quickly cooked cabbage, mashed asparagus or green peas are good for a baby of this age.

In the second year the child begins to learn to chew food. Give a buttered crust of bread or a good-sized chicken bone to bite on. Chewing develops the jaws and strengthens the incoming teeth. It is good for the child to develop the food-chewing habit.

Four or five meals given at regular intervals during the day should be planned. Rest and quiet are essential.

A normal and healthy baby will find its own amusement. It plays with its toes. It reaches for everything the hands can find. In this way the youngster gets a certain amount of exercise.

One of the rules for babies is that of giving them plenty of fruit juices and strained vegetables. In these are found the valuable minerals and vitamins that promote growth and energy and help so much in the development of the teeth and bones of the body. A child may have from one to three or four tablespoons of juice an hour before the second feeding in the morning.

This splendid milk diet, added to the cereals, fruits and vegetables, should build up your baby into a healthy and happy normal child. Every hour spent in its care and feeding means progress toward health, vitality and resistance to disease.

Highlights Of Ohio History

By J. H. GALBRAITH

The late Gen. Roelliff Brinkerhoff long the president of the Ohio state board of charities, was a member of the Dutch Reformed church in his youth, but later joined the Presbyterian church and died in that faith, but he left a testimonial to the Catholic church that it would be well for many disposed in these days to oppose that church to read.

He was an officer in the Civil War and in that capacity spent one winter at Bardonia, Ky., the seat of the Jesuit college of St. Joseph. Of course the college was closed, but Father Verdon, its head, with about a dozen priests remained and rendered valuable service in caring for sick and wounded soldiers. When small pox came these fathers never flinched while the Protestant clergy who had been helping, disappeared. Promptly an order came to prepare hospital accommodations for several hundred wounded soldiers who would be sent to Gen. Brinkerhoff at once. He called Father Verdon and explained that the college buildings would have to be used. There was no other way. But he would make it as easy for him as possible. He should collect all his valuable property in one building and a guard would be placed over it. Father Verdon readily assented.

Pleased with the agreement, Gen. Brinkerhoff directed Father Verdon to keep an account of all the equipment property taken for use by the army, and payment would be made in full for it. Some months later when he was ordered to Louisville, the general asked for this expense bill so that he could arrange for its payment. "We want nothing," said Father Verdon, "ministrations of mercy in times like these should be without money and without price." "From that time to this," wrote Gen. Brinkerhoff years afterward when preparing his memoirs, "I have had a kindly feeling for our Catholic brethren. If we as Protestants, would imitate their virtues and criticize their feelings less, it would be better for us all. Charity and not censure is what is needed here by Protestants and Catholics alike, for we are all miserable sinners."

NEW YORK TO ACT ON ISSUE ASKING REPEAL

Legislature Expected To Pass Cuvillier Bill In Session Today

ALBANY, April 11. — The New York state legislature today was expected to pass the Cuvillier bill memorializing congress to call a constitutional convention to repeal the eighteenth amendment. Mustering their greatest display of strength since prohibition was written into the federal constitution, the assembly rules committee to report the bill by a vote of 82 to 61.

Twenty Republican assemblymen joined with the Democrats in supporting the measure. Never before had more than 15 Republicans voted wet in the house.

Because of a technical error made by Assemblyman Louis A. Cuvillier, Tammany Democrat, in moving to discharge the rules committee, immediate passage of the bill was blocked in the assembly.

The vote in the assembly was a surprise to the wets and a distinct shock to the dries. Advocates of prohibition had not expected that more than a dozen Republicans would vote to pass the Cuvillier proposal.

Cuvillier announced he would move today to suspend the assembly rules which would automatically bring his bill out on the floor for final passage.

If the bill reaches the floor of the senate before final adjournment tonight its passage is certain, wets said. At least a half dozen Republican senators are reported to be ready to support the measure.

The sudden flare-up over prohibition came when the 1936 session of the legislature was getting ready to adjourn. The final gavel is expected to fall tonight or tomorrow.

London Newsboys Spurred By Reports Of Marital Chances

LONDON, April 11. — The ghost of Dr. Watson strolled through London this morning and noticed an unusual sartorial improvement in many of the newsboys he passed.

This was so striking that he hurried at once to the chambers of his friend, Sherlock Holmes, with the information.

"And you say their faces are unusually clean, many of them are wearing neckties and their Sunday suits despite the fact it is only Friday?"

"Exactly," replied the puzzled Watson.

"Ha!" exclaimed Mr. Holmes.

RADIO STATION ISSUES REPORT OF GUN BATTLE

Press Service Informed
Of Shooting Through
Iowa Broadcaster

CHICAGO, April 11.—The Associated Press and radio listeners of Station KTNT, Muscatine, Ia., received word simultaneously today of a shooting at the station's studios.

When Norman Baker, owner-operator of the station, had gotten a long distance connection with the Chicago offices of the Associated Press early today, he said over the phone and into the microphone.

"This is Station KTNT, Norman Baker speaking to its listeners and to the Associated Press. An attempt has just been made to shoot up the studio. Shots were fired at persons here, and the shots were returned. One of three men, who apparently were getting ready to fire upon us through a window, was wounded. He fell to the ground."

"I do not, of course attribute this when Dr. Harry Hoxsey fired, and his companions lifted him into an automobile in which they drove away."

Muscatine police received confirmation of the studio shooting from witnesses outside the building. Baker in his announcement through the microphone, and over the phone to the Associated Press said the notice was intended, too, for Iowa and Illinois police and for hospitals to which the wounded gunman—if one was wounded—might be taken.

Baker went on to say that he had been attacked recently in the American Medical Journal, edited by Dr. Morris Fishbein, of Chicago, for his broadcasts concerning the treatment of cancer at the institute which is operated in connection with the broadcasting station.

gun attack to the A. M. A." he said, "but Fishbein's criticism of our method of treatment has been so sharp and so unfair that it may have prompted such an attack by others."

Muscatine police received confirmation of the studio shooting from witnesses outside the building. Baker in his announcement through the microphone, and over the phone to the Associated Press said the notice was intended, too, for Iowa and Illinois police and for hospitals to which the wounded gunman—if one was wounded—might be taken.

Baker went on to say that he had been attacked recently in the American Medical Journal, edited by Dr. Morris Fishbein, of Chicago, for his broadcasts concerning the treatment of cancer at the institute which is operated in connection with the broadcasting station.

"I do not, of course attribute this

Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick returns to her work in Washington, having beaten by more than 200,000 votes Senator Deane, who beat her husband, the late Medill McCormick, for senator six years ago.

If Medill McCormick, now in heaven, knows about that, he is well pleased with his energetic widow.

SOON MRS. MCCORMICK will run against James Hamilton Lewis, able and dignified statesman of the old school.

Her husband beat James Hamilton Lewis when he, Medill McCormick, was elected senator. That coming election will be interesting. Mrs. McCormick could not say anything against Mr. Lewis, and Mr. Lewis, twice as chivalrous as Bayard, would not say anything against Mrs. McCormick, if he could, and he could not.

IT WILL HAVE TO BE A prohibition fight. Mrs. McCormick is dry, and unlike some statesmen, she is dry inside and out. She votes and lives dry. Mr. Lewis is a wet—the American citizen should not be deprived of his personal freedom, sir.

Mrs. McCormick will say vote for me and I shall keep you out of the world court and keep you dry.

Mr. Lewis will say "elect me and I'll keep you out of the world court as a matter of course, and I'll give you back your foaming beer."

Where the skyscrapers look on Michigan ave., and Michigan ave. looks upon the lake in Chicago good citizens will muse at length on those propositions.

A SAN DIEGO CENSUS enumerator sheds light on prohibition in this state. "Madam," he asked "what is your husband's business?" "He's a bootlegger," replied the lady, "and I tell you, he's doing fine. Is he employed at present? I should say he is. He drove a truckload of wine to Los Angeles this morning."

"I'll put him down as a drink salesman," said the tactful enumerator. There is no employment problem among bootleggers.

NEW YORK — Only about 2,000 sailors a month are turned away from the seaman's church institute now because of intoxication. In revealing this to the Woman's Committee for Law Enforcement, Rev. Douglas Matthews, chaplain of the institute, said there had been great improvement on the waterfront; before prohibition it was unusual to find a seaman sober.

COURT AFFIRMS DECISIONS MADE IN THIS COUNTY

Appellate Decisions Are Handed Down In County Seat

LISBON, April 11.—Out of the 11 cases assigned for argument before the court of appeals during its term in Columbiana county, three were continued, one application for a rehearing refused, a referee determined in another, one case was reversed and four findings in the court below affirmed.

The record of the court is as follows:

Amanda Smith, administratrix against George W. Runyon, appeal. A referee is to be named to take testimony and reduce it to writing, and make a finding of facts and conclusions of law and report to the court.

The Kerr Lumber Co., against David H. Turner, appeal was continued for the second time.

Alice McDowell, administratrix against Anna McDonald, error. An application for a rehearing refused. Exceptions.

Youngstown — Ohio River Railroad Co., against Howard Holloway, Error. Continued.

Della Norris against George E. Patterson, Appeal. Passed.

Carbiceo Loses Case

Joe Carbiceo against the State of Ohio. Error. Judgment affirmed. Exceptions.

J. G. McCrory Co., against Mary Hanley. Error. Judgment affirmed. Exceptions.

Frances Zeigler, administratrix against H. Mitchell Gunder, Error. Judgment affirmed. Exceptions.

Mike Mannella against A. L. Pugh and others. Appeal. Finding for defendants. Specific performance of contract refused. Motion for a new trial overruled. Exceptions.

Norwalk Upholstering Co. against Sarbin's Furniture store, Salem. Error. Judgment of the lower court affirmed. Exceptions.

Erie Railroad Co. against Ardia E. Rohrer, Error. Judgment of the lower court reversed because there is no evidence to support the verdict and for error in charge of the trial court for refusing to direct a verdict for the defendants below. Final judgment entered for plaintiff in error.

Was Indicted With Other

Carbiceo was indicted with Giuseppe L. Volino at the September term of court last year for manufacturing distilled liquor, following a liquor raid made in Yellow Creek township. When arraigned both men entered pleas of not guilty and each gave $5,000 bond. The State then elected to try both men separately, and when Carbiceo was tried Oct. 7 last the jury failed to agree.

A special venire was drawn and the defendant was then sentenced by Judge W. F. Lones to serve from one to five years in the Ohio penitentiary.

Notice of appeal was given by Attorney R. M. Brookes, counsel for the defendant and a petition in error was filed in the Appellate court Dec. 10 last, with the judgment of the lower court now being affirmed.

The case against Volino has not been called for trial.

DIVORCE CASES COME INTO COURT

Three Wives Asking For Separation From Their Husbands

LISBON, April 11.—Martha Gerren, Harvey age, East Liverpool, has filed an action for divorce in common pleas court against her husband, Sidney Gerren, whom she married at Wellsburg, July 29, 1921, charging that Gerren took her savings that she had earned from working over a wash tub, and spent the money for the entertainment of other women.

The petition also relates that money Mrs. Gerren had saved was for the payment of a street assessment and other home upkeep.

Gerren is charged with striking his wife, and has been separated from her for three years. The plaintiff asks the court upon final hearing to divest Gerren of his interest in a Harvey ave. property, now standing on the tax duplicate in the name of both plaintiff and defendant.

Divorce action has been filed by Esther Stockdale against her husband Howard Stockdale, 110 Jackson st., East Liverpool, from whom she has been separated.

Stockdale has been paying his wife $5 weekly for the support of a minor, and the plaintiff asks that upon final hearing of the issue that the order be made permanent until the minor has reached the age of 18 years.

They were married at Wellsburg, W. Va., Dec. 31, 1924, and the defendant is charged with gross neglect of duty and extreme cruelty.

Alice M. Watson of East Palestine, has filed a divorce action against her husband, George C. Watson, residing at the Nunnally hotel, Youngstown, charging him with habitual drunkenness for over a period of three years and extreme cruelty.

A divorce, alimony and custody of a minor child is asked upon final hearing. The couple were married at New Castle, Pa., Feb. 5, 1927.

EATON FACTION FORCES MERGER TO STANDSTILL

Path to Possible Victory Opened by Opponent To Consolidation

YOUNGSTOWN, O., April 11.—The legal weapons of Cyrus S. Eaton have forced the proposed consolidation of Youngstown Sheet & Tube and Bethlehem Steel into a standstill and opened a possible path to victory.

Whether the merger proponents obtained the necessary two-thirds majority of the vote of Sheet & Tube stockholders is expected to be revealed late today, but even if the count favors the merger, the deal admittedly is indefinitely postponed.

First there is a decision to come from Common Pleas Judge C. S. Turnbaugh which will determine whether more than $1,000 shares, carrying the balance of power, were voted legally. Judge Turnbaugh yesterday decided to allow unofficial announcement of the result of the voting, but declared that it must not be recorded until he has made his decision.

After that a long series of litigation in prospect, which attorneys for both sides expect ultimately to reach the United States supreme court and possibly keep the final outcome in doubt until after Sept. 1, the date upon which the contract calls for consummation of the merger and transfer of Sheet & Tube's property to Bethlehem. Bethlehem will not complete the deal until the court battles have ended. Newton D. Baker, counsel for the pro-merger committee, said.

The longer the delay continues, the more strategic becomes the position of Eaton, Cleveland financier who has determined to fight to the last ditch. If he can keep matters tied up in the courts until after the stockholders' annual meeting, April 22, it is believed he will win.

Five Years of Suffering End; Konjola Praised

"Have New And Splendid Health," Declares Lady Who Found A Surprise In Modern Medicine

MRS. KATHERINE NIENING

"Stomach trouble and nervousness about made a wreck of me in five years," said Mrs. Katherine Niening, 233 Hollywood Boulevard, Longwood, Ohio. "Even the lightest foods caused gas, bloating and general misery. I could not sleep at night. I was so nervous. The constant noise irritated me, and my general health was in a dreadful state."

"My neighbor told me about this Konjola, but I was past belief in my medicine. However, as I read lay after day of Konjola's remarkable achievements, I decided to try it. I purchased two bottles and started the treatment. Well, these two bottles did so much good that I realized I had found the right medicine. I took four more bottles—complete treatment—and today my nerves are quiet; every sign of indigestion is gone, and I eat and feel like any normal person. If you suffer as I did, don't fail to try Konjola."

"Though Konjola works quickly, so each bottle is recommended as a fair trial. Many people find immediate relief in a week. It is true, but for complete and thorough results the full treatment is best and surest."

Konjola is sold in Salem, Ohio, at H. House Drug Co. Three Stores, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—Adv.

New Theory On Man - Ape Ideas

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Man is not descended from the monkey, he's only a distant cousin.

Such is the opinion of Dr. Austin H. Clark, curator of the national museum. He contends, however, that although man is not a descendant of the ape, they both come from a common ancestor. To this extent he agrees with Darwin.

In a radio address, Clark said: "Man is not an ape and there is not the slightest evidence that man is descended from an ape."

"In the very remote past, man and the apes have had a common ancestor. This common ancestor could not have resembled either man or ape as we know men and apes today. The relationship man and apes may be understood by comparison with the relationship between a greyhound and a bulldog. These two very different types of dogs are descended from a wolf which, in mentality as well as in bodily form, is very different from either of them."

125 Fans, Players Attend Athletic Banquet At Memorial Gym

THE DAY In Sports

MANY HEED TRACK CALL
150 OUT AT LIVERPOOL

HANS WAGNER appeared as principal speaker on last night's banquet program at the Memorial building and furnished his audience with interesting episodes of his experience as baseball star. But the "Flying Dutchman's" appearance here wasn't the feature of the affair, it was the enthusiasm with which such a gathering was greeted that really was the outstanding event on the program.

Everyone of the 125 or more persons present will in the future favor city sporting activities and offer his cooperation when plans for another athletic banquet is offered. It is only too bad that not more were present for it was a real success from every way of figuring.

ATHLETICS DRAW the attention of persons representing every type of business activity. It draws the laborer from the shop, the banker from his desk, and the industrial executive from blue prints and business worries. The youngsters forget their studies when a baseball or football contest is discussed. He'd sooner toss a baseball bat and forth than eat. The stock market and its potential crashes or spectacular leaps are side issues until the sport page is perused and it is discovered how many homers the Babe slammed or where the Indians stand.

TRACK, the principle warm-weather sporting activity at Salem high, has attracted about 50 athletes, giving Coaches Floyd Stone and Harold McCord more than the left-overs from last season to work with in the formation of the year's squad. A goodly array of lettermen is available from 1929 but they only serve to make the team strong in some departments while weaknesses are glaringly apparent in various events hit by graduation.

The inter-class track and field competition, originally slated for tomorrow afternoon, will be run off at Reilly stadium today, being scheduled to start at 3:30. The change was announced late Thursday by W. J. Springer, school principal.

LETTERMEN WILL BE allowed to participate and it is only right that they should be, considering the fact that they will be indulging in real competition for the first time this year a week from tomorrow. Their points, however, will not count towards annexing the school title so the younger and inexperienced lads will probably turn out in large numbers.

THROUGHOUT THE DISTRICT, arrangements are being made for spring and summer sports by scholastic coaches. Only 15 athletes headed Coach Donald Barbe's call at Columbiana High this week but East Liverpool, anxious to cop the county crown this year, turned out a group of 100. Wellsville and Leetonia also have fairly large squads available and Lisbon is supposed to be stronger than last year.

Coach Earl Zook, at Liverpool, will be working on spring football and track next week, 85 having reported for the latter work-outs. It is his first season at the Ceramic City but the track prospects are reported much better than they have been for some time.

PORT WAYNE, IND., April 11.—The New York Giants may find a job without any delay for Walter Roetter, the outfielder, they got from the Cardinals yesterday. They were so short on players for yesterday's game here that they had to draft a pair of coaches, Irish Meusel and Dave Bancroft, for emergency service. Meusel played left field and Andy Reese, who has been working in the outer pastures, injured a hand. Bancroft, acting manager for the day, substituted himself for Travis Jackson at shortstop.

Track Meet Moved Ahead; Slated Today

The date for the annual inter-class track and field meet at Reilly stadium was changed from Saturday afternoon to today by Wilbur J. Springer, high school principal, late Thursday.

The meet was scheduled to get under way at 3:30 this afternoon.

Lettermen will be allowed to compete but points scored by them will not be counted towards winning the meet.

A silver trophy cup will be awarded to the winning class.

Babe Ruth Knocks Ball Out of Sight

CHATTANOOGA, TENN., April 11.—At last Babe Ruth really has knocked a baseball clear out of sight, but he didn't get a home run when he did it. The Babe drove one off the top of lookout mountain here yesterday and no one saw how far it went.

In the game against the Chattanooga Southern Association team, the best the Babe could do on his lame leg was get one triple, which Karlon ran out for him, and let a few balls go past him in left field which he ordinarily would pull down.

THROUGHOUT THE DISTRICT, arrangements are being made for spring and summer sports by scholastic coaches. Only 15 athletes headed Coach Donald Barbe's call at Columbiana High this week but East Liverpool, anxious to cop the county crown this year, turned out a group of 100. Wellsville and Leetonia also have fairly large squads available and Lisbon is supposed to be stronger than last year.

Coach Earl Zook, at Liverpool, will be working on spring football and track next week, 85 having reported for the latter work-outs. It is his first season at the Ceramic City but the track prospects are reported much better than they have been for some time.

PORT WAYNE, IND., April 11.—The New York Giants may find a job without any delay for Walter Roetter, the outfielder, they got from the Cardinals yesterday. They were so short on players for yesterday's game here that they had to draft a pair of coaches, Irish Meusel and Dave Bancroft, for emergency service. Meusel played left field and Andy Reese, who has been working in the outer pastures, injured a hand. Bancroft, acting manager for the day, substituted himself for Travis Jackson at shortstop.

I Had To Force Myself To Work

But I Had Renewed Energy, Fine Appetite and Sound Sleep After Taking Owa-Ton-Na

MR. GEORGE DEMOS

Mr. George Demos, 833 Savannah Ave., N. E., Canton, Ohio, who for some time has been suffering with a run down condition of health, says that he was really surprised at the results that this fine medicine shows in a very short time.

Mr. Demos says that the headaches he suffered with at times made him feel that his head would split open. "When I tried Owa-Ton-Na, I did not feel that the first bottle would do me a great deal of good, but I want to say it made a great change in my condition. Almost from the very first dose I could see that my system was getting a real cleansing. My stomach seemed to tone up and my appetite improved greatly. I was not troubled with that sourness and gas as I had been before."

"I seemed to have renewed energy and when I got up in the morning, I did not feel tired. Dizziness disappeared and I lost that crummy, irritable feeling. Backaches and kidney disorders have been conquered. I used to suffer a great deal with nervousness but now I hardly know I have any nerves. I have gained in strength and feel like a different man. I can certainly recommend Owa-Ton-Na to those who are suffering as I had."

"Time after time Owa-Ton-Na has brought results when methods generally employed have failed. Owa-Ton-Na is sold in Salem at J. H. Lease Drug Co. Three Stores—Adv.

MOVIES

"RIO GRANDE ROMANCE"
At The Grand
"Romance of Rio Grande" is a story of the west in pioneer times revolving around the opposing forces seeking to conquer the plains, and especially one particular vast estate below the Rio Grande border. It is an adaptation of Katherine Gerould's novel of the Spanish conquistadors, titled "Conquistador," and in its conversion to the talking screen, Alfred Santell, the director, has done a masterful job in retaining the poignant beauty of locale and pulsating romance which predominates the story.
Warner Baxter, a striking personality in romantic roles, and Mary Duncan, raven haired beauty who has been scoring repeatedly in stellar performances, enact the two principal roles.
Baxter's performance stamps him as the ace delineator of romantic caballeros, his work even surpassing his brilliant characterization in "In Old Arizona."

"IN THE NEXT ROOM"
At The State
"In the Next Room," described as a chilling, thrilling but also mirth-mystery thriller, will open at the State theatre tonight.
The eerie events of the story take place in an old house where a murder has taken place forty years previous.
Jack Mulhall plays the featured role in this production, portraying a newspaper reporter. Alice Day appears in the feminine lead. Others in the supporting cast are Jane Winton, Robert O'Connor, John St. Polis, Claude Allister and Aggie Herring.

"In the Next Room" is an adaptation of the play by Eleanor Robson Belmont and Harriet Ford. Harvey Gates wrote the screen version and James Starr the dialogue. Edward Cline directed.

District Scoutmaster C. E. Filten of East Liverpool again met with a group of men and boys at the M. E. church on Monday night. The P. T. A. met in the music room at the school building on Monday night. The committee for the purpose reported plans by which a couch, table and chairs will be installed in the rest room this week with more equipment to follow as is practicable. Plans were also made for the pre-school clinic and last year's committee placed in charge of which Mrs. S. E. McCune is chairman. It is hoped to have a good set of scales installed soon. The program consisted of a playlet, "How the Story Grew" given by a group of high school girls, two character sketches given by Audrey Holcomb, and a reading by Miss Florence Lipp. Mr. Felton and his boy scouts presented the scout idea through talk and demonstration.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Schory entertained guests over the weekend: Mr. Spicer of Columbus visited his daughter, he was accompanied by Charles Stow, Mrs. Neil Shipley and children, Mary and Esther, A. J. Hayes, of Alliance, Mr. and

NEW YORK — Mayor James J. Walker has signed a bill increasing the allowable working stress on steel used in buildings from 16,000 to 18,000 pounds per square inch. Experts have estimated that the saving in building construction work as a result of the bill will amount to millions annually. It is also expected to relieve the unemployment situation here.

AT THE HOME STORE
Tom Gibbs, Maytag salesman was seen to turn away from a prospective buyer of an electric washing machine, a disgusted look in his face. The "boss" immediately wanted to know why.
"She doesn't want an electric washing machine," "Tom" replied.
"I explained in detail just how to operate it, turned on the current, and showed her how it works, and finally she pointed to the hole in the bottom and asked:
"What is that for?"
"To let the water out," I said.
"Oh, then, it doesn't wash by electricity, does it? You have to use water?"

AROUND TOWN
The Kiwanis Club's donation of $515 to the High School Band was a fine demonstration of the good any organization can do for any worthy cause. We think the club is to be congratulated upon this splendid record. It's work of this kind that makes these civic clubs really worth while for a community.

A TREAT
When you eat meat purchased at our store for it's the best on the market.

WHO'S WHO IN SALEM
W. H. Knisley & Sons, Salem's oldest automobile dealers selling the Hudson and Essex cars. They started in a small way many years ago selling bicycles, then motorcycles and was the first local agents for automobiles.
Through these many years of faithful service, they have built an ever increasing business. Just a few years ago they built their fine new modern garage at the corner of Race and Howard Sts. Mr. Knisley has charge of the shop and Herman, his son, has charge of the sales. This makes a good combination and has brought fourth the success they have already attained.

Simple Remedy
For Bad Stomach
Gives Swift Relief

No Need of Strong Medicines or Diet. Safe and Simple Home Recipe Keeps Stomach in Fine Condition

If you are a victim of Stomach Troubles—Gas, Sourness, Pain or Bloating—You may have quick and certain relief by following this simple advice.

Don't take strong medicines, artificial digestants or pull down your system with starvation diets. For within reason most folks may eat what they like if they will keep their stomach free from souring acids that hinder or paralyze the work of digestion.

And the best and easiest way to do this is to follow every meal with a little Bismarck Magnesia—a pleasant, harmless, inexpensive, and handy to use preparation that all reliable druggists can supply in either powder or tablet form. Its use promptly neutralizes acidity and keeps your stomach sweet and clean.

A week's trial of Bismarck Magnesia should quickly convince you that 90 per cent of ordinary stomach distress is absolutely unnecessary. Be sure to get Bismarck Magnesia and give it a good trial. Adv.
